

Park Engineering / Blue Heeler Mining joins the Australian Made Campaign

Park Engineering thru the Blue Heeler Mining product line have proudly qualified & joined the Australian Made campaign.

Managing Director, Jarrod van Elstrand says “The Australian Made logo will now assist in the promotion & marketing of our Blue Heeler Mining product line as it immediately identifies home-grown manufacturing”

Independent research carried out by Roy Morgan in 2012 showed that almost all Australian consumers (98.8%) recognise the logo, and it is the logo which gives the vast majority (88.6%) of Australian consumers strong confidence that a product is Australian.
